Hi Hector,

I understand there was some confusion in the field about today's operation, protocols, etc. I'm checking in with Mandy later today but if you have any additional feedback, I'd love to hear it.

Also adding RAP-UHRC to this email thread.

Thanks.

Brian

Hi All,

I ran into the team here at the Lake and got some clarification on the CARE operation scheduled for today. Let's have them skip this location for today and move on to the next site. We have it scheduled and posted with RAP on Friday, Jan 24th so let's have the teams handle it then.

Thank you for your help.
